

Privacy Notice: Student

The following is a description of the way we, Education Swanage Limited operating as The Swanage School, hold and process student information.

Student Information

We will gather some information from previous schools and other agencies (see the data sharing list below). We will only gather information from you if it is required by us to carry out our official functions. The information we collect, hold and share includes:

- Personal details (such as name, unique pupil number, contact details and date of birth)
- Family, lifestyle and social circumstances
- Characteristics (such as language, nationality, and free school meal eligibility)
- Behaviour and attendance records
- Financial details
- Education details
- Visual images and biometric data

We may, where processing is necessary for the purpose of carrying out our official functions including safeguarding also collect, hold and share sensitive data including

- Physical or mental health details
- Racial or ethnic origin
- Religious or other beliefs of a similar nature
- Sexual/Gender inclination
- Offences and alleged offences (including criminal proceedings and outcomes)

Why we collect and use this information

We use this data:

- To provide education, welfare and related support services including
  - the support of student learning
  - the monitoring and reporting on student progress
  - the provision of appropriate pastoral care
  - assessing the quality of our services
  - complying with the law regarding data sharing
- To maintain our own accounts and records including
  - The recording of payments for school lunches and uniform
  - The recording of other charges (see the School's charging and remissions policy)

We also use CCTV and biometric systems to maintain security and for cashless payments. We will not collect, store or process student biometric data without consent. This consent will normally be sought at the time the student joins the school.

Lawful Basis

The lawful basis for the above processing is to:

- enable the School to discharge its responsibilities as a Public Authority
- comply with legal obligations
- enable any "legitimate interest" processing that may be required by the school to fulfil its charitable purpose but only if this function is deemed to fall outside the school's Public Authority remit

Data Sharing

We may need to share some of your personal information with other organisations including:

- family, associates and representatives of the student whose personal data we are processing
- educators, careers and examining bodies
- other school boards
- prospective employers
- central and local government
- healthcare professionals
- social and welfare organisations
- police forces
- courts and tribunals
- security organisations
- suppliers (including professional advisors and consultants)
- voluntary and charitable bodies
- press and media

Data: Its retention and how it is held and processed

Your information will be held for no longer than is necessary. Though the School may, in the public interest, continue to hold some data for archival, statistical and/or research purposes.

Your information will be held and processed securely and will not be transferred outside the European Economic Area (EEA) except to those countries or international organisations which are deemed suitable by the ICO.

The School does not make use of “automated individual decision making” (decisions made by automated means without any human involvement) nor does it use “profiling” (automated processing of personal data to evaluate or predict certain events or behaviours about an individual).

Your rights

You have the right to request access to information that we hold about you. To make a request for your personal information, contact the School Office.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed
- request that information transferred to the providers of youth support services (under section 507b of the Education Act 1996) is limited to the student’s name address and date of birth

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Subsequently, you may contact the Information Commissioner’s Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
